

North West Global Education Network (NWGEN)

Lancashire Network

NWGEN is setting up a local network to provide opportunities for discussion and training focused on ways of incorporating the Global Dimension into schools in Lancashire.

The first network event will be a two day training course on Philosophy for Global Citizenship - P4GC.

Philosophy for Global Citizenship

This course combines the teaching methodology
Philosophy for Children (P4C) with Global Citizenship Activities.

29th June and 13th July 2005
Lancashire County Hall, Preston

This Level 1 training course is accredited by SAPERE.

SAPERE is the Society for Advancing Philosophical Enquiry and Reflection in Education.

Why Philosophy for Global Citizenship?

- Philosophy for Children is a methodology that enables young people to think and question.
- Global Citizenship activities challenge young people to think and question the world in which they live.
- Philosophy for Global Citizenship (P4GC) therefore provides the skills as well as the stimuli for young people to become active global citizens.
